Character Development

Character development refers to the changes and growth that happen to a character throughout a story. It's like watching a character transform from the beginning to the end. This can include changes in their thoughts, feelings, actions, and beliefs, helping them become more complex and realistic as the story unfolds.

Character's Name: _____

Motivation & Goals	Physical Traits	Personality Traits